NOTTER TO REST A WHILE,

GIVEN A FINE AND TWO WEEKS' SUS-PENSION FOR ROUGH RIDING.

Hyperion II. Wins the Feature at City Park -Old Robin Hood in Front-Carthage Home First.

New Orleans, La., December 30.-The rough riding of jockey Notter in the closing race, which almost caused a serious accident, his suspension for two weeks and a fine of $50 by the judges, in addition to having his mount, Lancastrian, disqualified, were the chief incidents attending the sport this afternoon. Notter, breaking from an outer position, took his mount close to the others, there-Notter, breaking from an outer by causing a mix-up when rounding the first turn in which Cashin, on El Capitan, was unseated. Luckily, the rider escaped injury.

A fairly well-balanced card attracted a good-sized Monday attendance to the course. The sport, however, was mediocre. Only two favorites were The feature, a handicap at seven furlongs, went to Hyperion II. in impressive style and time. Juggler, the well supported favorite, ran a good race from a slow beginning, but was unequal to the task of beating the winner Pedro, which finished third, was accorded confident support and for the first time in his numer ous starts, he showed something of his true form With a better send-off he would have been a sharp

Sam Hoffireimer and Peter Becker were thought able to hold the others safe in the jumping race, ey were beaten out by Aules at a long price Sam Hoffheimer, showing sudden improvement and superior speed, lasted long enough to take second place from Peter Becker. Killdoe furnished some excitement for the onlookers by falling after going over the last fence and laid apparently lifeless for a long time. After resting sufficiently he got up and was led off the track. His rider, Welton, was haken up slightly by the tumble. The Burlew & O'Neill stable furnished the openwinner and favorite in Estella C., but had to stand a hard drive through the stretch to

Robin Hood, the second favorite to win in the course of the afternoon, had to run a sparkling race to win the purse. He was in close quarters for the first furlong of the stretch run, but when clear, came with a tremendous rush to take first place by a neck from the long shot, Alencon

Dew of Dawn, showing superior speed and aided by good racing luck, made a show of her opponents in the fifth race at a mile and won all the

In the closing race, Carthage showed a return to form and never left the result of the race in doubt, Lancastrian getting second place from Zip-. There was much crowding and jamming in race, from which Zipango suffered, but not sufficiently to warrant the rear position he occupied during the first three-quarters. Mountain's effort in the final drive was a weak one and the judges gave him to understand that he will have to do his here.

A. Smith has concluded negotiations with James McLaughlin for the transfer of the contract jockey Calvin Henry, the promising apprentice rider.

Starter Cassidy suspended jockeys C. Koerner and J. Sumter for three days for disobedience at the post, and for a similar offense J. W. Murphy was given five days.

Paddock judge Lyles was instructed before the racing began today to rigidly enforce the rule barring others than owners or trainers from entering paddock stalls while the horses are being saddled, or jockeys given instructions. Among the owners who have signified their intention to ship horses to the proposed Tampa, Fla., Pons & Holder, L. Ezell, J. Magur, Browney & Perkins, M. Levy, C. Burnet, J. Jr., J. Arthur, H. P. Brown, C. F. Brosius and Bellew & Hensley.

MONTREAL TO RACE WITH SARATOGA.

New York, December 30 .- It is understood in circles from which absolute knowledge should come. that the Blue Bonnets course at Montreal would probably hold its racing during the month of August, parallel with Saratoga. The idea of holding a thirty-day continuous meeting is thought to be a it would take a number of horsemen to Montreal that would not go there for a short meeting. It will also be a saving of money to the club in many ways. Saratoga will not like it. Neither will the Jockey Club.

KENTUCKY TO RACE 100 DAYS.

Cincinnati, O., December 30.-The season of 1908 Kentucky racing will probably be curtailed to 100 days or less. The plan is for Latonia to take about forty-five days, thirty-one in the spring and fourteen days in the fall. Louisville will get about thirty-five days, twenty-one in the spring and fourteen days in the fall. Lexington will attempt ten days in the spring and about the same number in Runs Fast Race-Four Choices Win.

Los Angeles, Cal., December 30.—Secretary E. C. Smith presented the poorest card of the meeting to-day, the only race of any consequence being the fourth on the program, in which Colonel Jack van-quished Sir Edward. It seemed for a moment on the far turn as if Sir Edward had the race at his mercy, as Colonel Jack was in close quarters next to the rail, but Sir Edward faltered in the last hundred yards when challenged by the winner. Jockey C. H. Shilling was fined $50 by Judge with Mary Candlemas in the fifth race Never in the history of southern California rac ing have the bookmakers been hit as hard as they have been during this meeting. J. J. McManus one of the chief pencilers here, has quit after losing $15,000 and Messrs. Rose and Doggett are heavy If the favorites continue winning, the next cut-in will see only about fourteen books. The chestnut gelding. Hal, owned and trained by Frank Regan, easily won the first race after racing Barney Oldfield into exhaustion in the early running. Senator Beckham, the favorite, finished with a rush, but was not good enough to beat the winner today

The ill-judged ride E. Martin gave Bellmence in the second race was the only thing which caused his defeat. The Sultan just managed to get up in a hard drive to win by a neck after Bellmence was taken back and to the inside fence in the last Lady Chiswell, from the Carman Stable, was a distant third.

third race, which was a special-weight affair for three-year-old maidens, over the five and one half furlongs course, was won by Adelbert Belle in a canter. She had been reported with some work-outs, which were responsible her price going from 3 to 1 to 8 to 5 at post time. Pacific Electric ran a good race, finishing well in front of some reputed good ones.

BIG STAKE ENTRIES EXPECTED.

New York, December 30 .- Entries to the three big handicaps, the Brooklyn, Brighton and Suburban and other rich stakes, which close Thursday at midnight, have been coming in well according to the secretaries of the several associations, who however, are not privileged to give out advance information as in previous years was the custom. The associations figure and, perhaps shrewdly, that when certain nominations are made public, it may have the effect of keeping back some that otherwise would be entered and hence the old order changes. But few names have leaked out and even these cannot be given accurately for any one handicap or stake.

After Thursday, when it will not be possible to enter anything more, it is expected a partial list will be given out, then a week allowed for late mails before the official list is made public.

Besides the three big handicaps, it is closing time for the Futurity of 1910 and the Brighton Produce Stakes of the same year.

The outlook is much better for the handicap division than it was last year. In 1906 there was only one good three-year-old, Accountant, while the past season's three-year-old division was much stronger than the older division. There should also be a number of good three-year-olds in 1908 and the entries should make a fine showing for the big events.

HOT SPRINGS RACING DOUBTFUL.

New Orleans, La., December 30 .- A lot of horsemen in various quarters have been waiting for two weeks for news from Little Rock, Ark. They expected before this to know that a special session of the legislature would have made it possible, by repealing or amending the Amis Law, to have a spring meeting of some thirty or forty days at the Oaklawn track of Hot Springs. But no special session has been called and there are grave doubts about Hot Springs racing in 1908.

NEW ORLEANS MERRY-GO-ROUNDS.

New Orleans, La., December 30.-The half-mile track opposite City Park will probably not open again this season. The Algiers crowd with their Suburban course will continue to race Sundays and at the close of the Fair Grounds and City meetings, will give a lengthy meeting unless the legislature intervenes, which is improbable.

RYE AND JULIA POWEL DOING WELL

New York, December 30 .- C. D. Sullivan and R. Angarola recently visited John Hynes at his Stamford, Conn., farm. They found the veteran trainer enjoying good health and gave excellent reports of the horses in his care.

Rye, Mr. Sullivan's crack selling plater, is on of the lot wintering at the Hynes place, and Julia Powel, Walter B. Jennings' good filly, is another. Both are doing exceedingly well.

MILLER NO NEWCOMER.

There seems to be some idea that the George Miller who bought Sewell and others at the Durnell sale is a newcomer. Twelve or thirteen years ago Miller was one of the crack riders of America.

FEATURELESS DAY AT SANTA ANITA. BAR TO PADDOCK CONFERENCES.

Colonel Jack Defeats Sir Edward—Avontellus All But Those Having Legitimate Business Excluded at Oakland.

San Francisco, Cal., December 28 .- There are no more paddock conferences at Oakland. One of the public annoyances of the turf was the unnecessary practice of allowing runners for bookmakers and big bettors to buttonhole an owner or trainer within the stall a few moments before the horses are sent to the post. What could look worse than to see the accredited agent of a bookmaker rushing into the paddock, through the crowds, and up to the ear of the jockey just about to take the leg on the favorite in the impending race. If the favorite is beaten and for some reason, legitimate though it may be, the aforesaid bookmaker had laid the borse taken in bundreds of dollars, imagine the scandalous talk which would naturally ensue

The paddock conferences have become proverbial within recent years, but it remains for the New California Jockey Club and the progressive administration of President Thomas H. Williams to squelch it here at Oakland for the first time in the records of American racing. Early this week he caused to be constructed in the paddock a wooden fence, four feet high and heavily boarded. It encircled the stalls, running about ten feet out. The spectators are allowed to lean over on this fence in making their inspection of the horses. No one is allowed to talk to trainers or jockeys. There is one entrance through this wooden barricade. There a Pinkerton captain is stationed. The jockey, the owner and trainer, an authorized betting commissioner and the necessary attendant for the horse are alone given right of way. The crowd and the bookmakers' runners are kept out. The scheme has been in working order for a number of days now and it may be said to be gratifyingly satisfactory. Here is a reform which is bound to come about everywhere.

NASH TURNER AND FRENCH RACING.

Nash Turner, who will be remembered as one of our best jockeys a few years ago, is training in France, and from all accounts is doing well.

At Auteuil, on December 9, two winners of hurdle races were trained by Turner at Maisons-Laffitte.

For Eugene Fischof he sent Gallerto, winner of the Prix Paul Crays, to the post, and for the Prix Cup the Vicomte G. De Fontarce's Cakewalk III., which, it is said, is the best filly of the year over sticks.

In France it is necessary for a trainer to handle steeplechasers and hurdlers as well as flat racers, the so-called illegitimate game having a great hold on the sensation-loving French sportsman.

This feature of French training, it is said, caused W. Donohue to desert France for England some two years back. Donohue did not like the jumpers, and though there may be quite as much or more of this sort of sport in England in the winter season, Donohue quit France for England.

Eugene Leigh was more pliable, it would appear, as from reports he has been handling the most successful stable of jumpers in that country for some

IMMENSE AUSTRALIAN CROWDS.

Of the immensity of the crowd that saw Apologue win the Cup last month, an Australian writer says: "Men who have been estimating these attendances for twenty-seven years, and should able to get very near the mark without counting the picknickers on the hill overlooking the Saltwater River, and the hill between the scraping the Race Course Hotel, they put number of people at Flemington on Apologue's day down at 100,000. This is at least three times as many people as see any day's racing in Australia at any place save the Flemington course.'

HARDINESS OF FRENCH HORSES.

Keen observers, such men as William Duke, Eugene Leigh, Enoch Wishard and George Walker, unite in declaring that the thoroughbred of France hardier and better than the thoroughbred of England and America. These wise horsemen agree that the French horse may not, as a two-year-old develop any more speed than the English or the American thoroughbred. But they challenge any to dispute that at three and up he does not pack weight better, last longer and race over ground more effectively than does either the English or the American horse

AMERICAN VS. ENGLISH HUNTING.

New York, December 30.-Foxhall Keene left Saturday for England to take part in the Midlands hunting season. He sent a stable of twelve thoroughbreds bred at Castleton Farm in Kentucky before him, and learned of its safe arrival before his start. All have been well schooled through the field and he will use all over the English hunting courses. He and Tom Hitchcock, who has been in England for a month, and also has a stable of hunters there, are to spend some time at the English meets, with headquarters at Melton Mowbray.

M'CARTER HEALTHY AND THRIVING.

Among the Newcastle Stable horses wintering in east McCarter has picked up and spread considerably since he stopped racing, and should make a good four-year-old. Carrollton has improved into a fine type of the thoroughbred and looks very prom ising for his three-year-old season.

GOOD RACING AT OAKLAND.

TRACK IS MUDDY AND SLOW BUT THE HORSES RUN TO THEIR FORM.

Blanche C. in a Canter-Northwest Defeats Massa and Deutschland-Miller and Marian Casey Win.

Oakland, Cal., December 30 .- Climatic conditions at Oakland were acutely disagreeable today. An, ever-changing track was the result of the frequent showers that fell during the afternoon. Nevertheless, the racing was both formful and interesting. The card was unusually attractive for an off day. The various trainers showed a commendable desire to help the sport along by contributing a full quota of starters in each race. There were no distinctive racing features, but good horses were engaged in the two condition affairs, the fourth and sixth, the remainder of the program being devoted to selling platers.

Favorites more than held their own with the wins of Vronsky, Blanche C., Gromobol and Marvel P. Gromobol was the best-backed horse and actual public choice in the third race, although Beechwood was quoted a shade less in some books. The plunging contingent suffered severe losses over the defeat of Deutschland and Boas, the odds-on favor ites in their respective races.

Walter Miller had only one outside mount during the afternoon and that was on Marian Casey. The severe criticism that his previous defeat on John Lowe's filly evoked, seemed to have had a salutary effect upon the champion jockey, for he his losing tactics today and brought her home in front with plenty to spare in the concluding race. Miller's long string of recent failures in the saddle is generally attributed to his willingness any kind of a horse, no matter whether he figures to have a chance or not. He has always insisted on adhering strictly to the first come first served policy in the matter of accepting outside mounts. Henceforth his riding of outside mounts will be restricted to such horses as appear to be probable winners on paper.

Barney Schreiber was a fresh arrival from the south and was a visitor at the track today. Schreiber, who arrived in time to lose a $500 wager on his horse, Deutschland, said that he would remain at Oakland for the remainder of the season. racing a big string on the local track and the majority of his horses are good mud runners, there-fore the condition of the track will be no handicap. In speaking of the Arcadia venture, Mr. Schreiber declared that its ultimate success was assured.

A. M. Covington, owner and trainer of Royal Maxim and other horses, has been suspended for thirty days and his entries ordered refused by the stewards for assaulting T. Fitzgerald, a fellow trainer, with a hammer this morning. Thirty-eight books did business in the big ring and the attendance was approximately 6,000.

JAMESTOWN MESS IS FUNNY.

New York, December 30.-The refusal of th officials of the Los Angeles Racing Association allow certains horses to race at their track for the reason that the horses were outlaws under the rules of the Jockey Club inasmuch as they were at Jamestown last September, some of the owners of horses thus barred to gather evidence that the horses under suspension never at the Jamestown track. It appears that the management of the Jamestown Jockey Club resorted to padding their entries and programs with names of horses which were not entered and did not race there and that this was not discovered by the representative of the Jockey Club sent there to keep a list of all the owners, trainers and horses which participated in the meeting in defiance of the Jockey Club after it refused to give its sanction for a race meeting at Jamestown. who was racing secretary of the Jamestown meeting, has, it is said, made affidavit for several owners that their horses were never at the track.

The condition of affairs was brought to the attention of Algernon Daingerfield, assistant secretary of the Jockey Club, and his investigations have thus far cleared some horses from the pro-hibition. Secretary E. C. Smith of the Los Angeles Racing Association, wired regarding the hor Ham and others, and the wide-spread padding of programs was discovered.

It is extremely probable that when matters have been straightened out, the Jockey Club will rule Sheridan Clark off the turf.

COST OF ONE NEW YORK STABLE.

Frank J. Farrell's racing stable cost last year about as follows: Twelve horses at $75 a month and extras, $9,000; entry fees, $5,000; jockey fees (regular price of $10 a mount), $5,000; forfeits in stake races, $10,000; traveling expenses and attendants, $8,000; salaries of three betting commissioners, $3,000, making a total of $40,000. though Mr. Farrell is as silent about his winnings as he is when he loses, it can safely be said that racing pays him well in the long run. In fact. it is several years since his stable has failed to

NOTES OF THE TURF.

C. B. Campbell, the Oklahoma breeder and banker sold twenty-two of his mares to Johnson & Nailer.

"Father Bill" Daly has his meager stable horses mildly at work in anticipation of a call for a spring meeting at Hot Springs.

Whether Dr. Gardner trains for the Carter Han dicap or not. Weir expects to get David Johnson's great sprinter, Roseben, ready for that event.

James H. McCormick has a full sister to Gloriflet in the stakes at New Orleans for two-year-olds of Her name is Gloriole and it may be a name profitable to keep in mind.

J. A. Eastin, who entered about thirty yearling fillies in the Fasig-Tipton Co.'s fall sale and with drew them, has sold sixteen or seventeen head pri vately to different person Dreamer and Bedouin, in the Duryea stable, are in fine fettle this winter and are given a couple exercise every day to keep them in hand. They are destined for early 1908 racing. Frank I. Comstock, an Illinois breeder, has bought the stallion Floyd K., the seven-year-old bay horse by Pontico-Oneatta, by Chesapeake, Kelly bought from W. A. Smith last June. "Rumor has it." says the Cincinnati Enquirer,

"that Dick Welles, the champion miler, Woodlawn Stud. will be sold to close out the part nership between Rome Respess and Joe Rhinock."

Derby, at the recent Newmarket sales

by Begonia-Iroquoise. Mr. E. Kennedy bought the yearling colt by Desmond-Sayonara, for $3,800.

"Mickey" Miles, who has been riding for one of the principal stables in Hungary, is visiting his old employer, "Father Bill" Daly at Hartford. Miles had a good season abroad, finishing well up on the winning list.

That speedy colt W. H. Daniel is not yet given . He has not been a success, but E. S. Burke still hoping that he will learn to carry his dazzling speed a useful distance. He will not lack for racing opportunities in 1908.

The two-year-old bay colt Moore Johnson, by Sempronius—Marchma, fell lame badly in a race at Oakland recently with a bad foot. The injured hoof does not yield to treatment and his owners do not believe he will race again for some time.

S. C. Lyne has purchased of Milton Young the nine-year-old black mare by Masetto-Alabana, by Himyar, at private sale. Black Banner has been stud for five years and has produced a filly by Dr. MacBride and three colts, all by Goldcrest.

The Texas Thoroughbred Association, which has control of racing in Texas, intends opening early in September with a meet at Austin, to be followed by meetings at San Antonio, Fort Worth, Houston, Dallas and Beaumont, in Texas, and Shreveport, in Louisiana.

Charles F. Dwyer, son of the late Michael F. wyer, and nephew of Philip J. Dwyer, president of the Brooklyn and Queens County Jockey clubs, has embarked in the hotel business in Florida. This young horseman is now manager of the Hotel Indian River, at Rockledge.

Good judges agree that Elliott C. Cowdin has a trio of remarkable weanlings at his Kirklevington Farm, they being: Chestnut colt, by Medler-Homespun, by Hanover; chestnut colt, by Hamburg— Semper Paratus, by Stratford; brown filly by Hamburg-Long Shore, by Longfellow.

John Rodegap, who is wintering his horses at the Kentucky Association track at Lexington, says Jim his two-year-old bay gelding, by Orlando-Lena Myers, which was badly cut down in a race at Churchill Downs last May, has entirely recovered and will be put in training after the first of

Trainer James Blute, of the Carman stable, a veteran, and always a keen hand with an odd horse, is discussed by the New York Sun as if he were a new man at the racing game. The paper thinks he has a secret and says that "Blute's secret has been well kept, so he is still able to mystify horsement in California."

Bookmaker Preston, who has been charged with ome share of "Boots" Durnell's trouble, is making one of the biggest books at Oakland and says: "Durnell and I have been friends for four or five years. He has never had one dollar's worth of money my book, nor did I ever own a hair of any of his horses' manes."

A funny item from Tennessee declares that the members of the New Memphis Jockey Club will undertake to get the ownership of the race tracks in the south back into the hands of breeders and owners and beyond the control of the professional race track men. They are of the belief that all of the disfavor in which racing is now largely held can be traced to the invasion of these men in the ownership of racing plants.

Theodore F. Endress, the Sheepshead Bay drug store man, recently bought the four-year-old chest-nut gelding Bull's Eye, and has him in light training at the Bay. When racing in the colors of the Newcastle Stable, this horse gave promise of being a colt of quality. As a three-year-old he won from a big field at Belmont Park, and finished third in both the Tidal Stakes and the Lawrence Realiza tion, Accountant winning both races.

HANDICAP OF JOCKEYS.

From time to time Daily Racing Form will publish a table of the comparative rating of those jockeys whose skill in the saddle has already been well demonstrated and of those who have not arrived, but give promise of coming excellence. The handicap will divide these riders into four classifications, of which those admittedly in the front rank of their calling will be indicated by 100, thence downward through 95 and 90 to 80, the lowest classification from which advancement upward will come when justified by good riding. The table will also show the number of mounts, wins, seconds, thirds and unplaced from January 1, 1907, and will be corrected from week to week. The table is smaller than that heretofore published in Daily Racing Form, but contains more serviceable information and is as

Went to post at 2:55. At post 2 minutes. Start fair, Won driving; second and third the same. Northwest, badly outpaced by the leaders for six furlongs, closed up steadily in the stretch, caught them it in at the end and got up in the last stride. Massa, from a flatfooted start, was bumped back on the first turn, but quickly overhauled the favorite and proceeded to set a stiff pace and drew out near the chud, but his rider was caught mapping. Deutschland had no mishaps and stood a remarkably game drive throughout, but tired finally. Woolma dropped hopelessly to the rear in the first half. Wild Blossom was badly outclassed.

Went to post at 3:53. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily: second driving; third the same. Marian Casey broke well on the outside and, setting the pace abnost throughout, won going away under a vigorous finish. Billy Pullman, unexpectedly close up from the start, finished like a cyclone on the Inside. Adena, also always well forward, went wide on the last turn and came along with a late electric rush and is very promising. Boss essayed to keep pace with the winner for the first half, but tired badly and is still short. Balmade began slowly and was messed about and closed a big gap. Went to post at 2:02. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
Estella C. broke fast, showed the most speed all the way and outstayed Banrida in the final drive. The latter, running in improved form, was gaining gamely in the stretch and would have won at a longer distance. Helen Holland, poorly ridden and going wide most of the way, came from a long way back in the stretch and ran a good race. My Love, timidly ridden, was taken back after going a quarter and failed to run to her best previous form. Margaret T. was well up throughout. Agnes Wood was sharply interfered with in the stretch and would have been closer up with a clear course. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Winner—B. g, by Sykeston—Leta B. (trained by J. Johnston).

Went to post at 2:28. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Aules, running to his best form, ran in close pursuit of Sam Hoffheimer to the last two obstacles, where he dashed into the lead and won with plenty in reserve. Sam Hoffheimer, showing sudden improvement and superior speed, raced Killdoe into exhaustion and stayed well in the closing drive. Peter Becker, poorly ridden, ran well and, better managed, would have been much closer up. Thespian fenced poorly and was beaten off. Killdoe showed speed, but was exhausted when approaching the last jump and fell heavily. The others were never conspicuous.

Time. 24½, 48½, 1:15½.

Winner—B. g, by Kingston—Belle of Maywood (trained by J. P. Mayberry).

Went to post at 2:58. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Robin Hood seemed to sulk in the early stages and suffered from interference in the stretch, but came with a rush when clear of interference and won drawing out. Alencon, away fast, showed the most early speed, but tired in the closing strides. No Quarter, prominent all the way, came on gamely in the stretch and outstayed Refined in the last few strides. Refined, in close quarters early, closed a big gap in the stretch run and finished fast. Meadowbreeze, from a slow beginning, closed a big gap and ran a good race under skillful riding. Telescope ran a bad race and can do much better. Minot tired after going a fast half. Coon ran below his best form and was weakly ridden. Minos will show improvement. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

Scratched—71833 Green Seal, 101; 72455 Higginbotham, 100; 72455 Fantastic, 107; 72455 Cock Sure, 108.

Winner—Ch. f, by Peep o'Day—Rain Drop (trained by R. J. Levy).

Went to post at 4:03. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Dew of Dawn, showing sudden improvement, dashed into a long lead on the first turn and never left the result in doubt, winning eased up through the stretch. Hans, away in a tangle, gained steadily all the way and finished fast. Severus, probably best, was on the extreme outside all the way and had to lose considerable ground, closed a big gap in the last quarter and ran an excellent race. Thomas Calhoun, away in a forward position, ran well, but tired in the stretch drive. Himalaya had a rough trip, ran well and was badly ridden. Pedigree made up much ground. Miss Mazzoni was knocked back on the first turn, but ran a bad race. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

Scratched—72439 Albert Star, 104; 72833 Ed Kane, 95; 72421 Divorcee, 102.

Overweights—Hans, 1½ pounds; Brimmer, 3; Bobbin Around, 2½.
